

WILL CARTER BAND

Created in the diverse and thriving Houston, TX music scene, the Will Carter Band is comprised of seasoned musicians Will Carter (lead vocals, rhythm guitar), Bino (fiddle, keys, and percussion), Dillan Dostal (lead guitar), Bobby Tapia (bass), and Jacob Lee (drums). Their latest track, "Had Me At Goodbye," showcases the band's signature blend of rich melodies and poignant lyrics. This song, along with singles "Wrong Side of Town," "Had It All Wrong," "Sway" and "Just Wait And See" set the stage for the 2024 release of their highly anticipated album "Had It All Wrong."

Will Carter Band has opened for esteemed acts such as Wade Bowen, Randall King, Eli Young Band, Cory Morrow, Kyle Park, Johnny Lee, The Great Divide and Cody Canada. Their dynamic stage presence and tight vocal harmonies have captivated audiences across Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska. The band has their sights on performing in 12 new US markets in 2024.

The band and its members have earned nominations for numerous music awards, including Will Carter's "Male Artist of the Year" in 2023, four consecutive nominations for "Male Vocalist of the Year" and "Songwriter of the Year," Bobby Tapia for "Bassist of the Year" in 2022, and Will Carter Band for "Band of the Year" at the 2022 Texas Country Music Awards. Lead singer, Will Carter and the band have landed over a dozen singles on the Texas music charts with three crossing over to Nashville's Music Row Chart. Will Carter Band's sound has also won over coveted industry reviewers:

"Carter's crystal-clear vocals are backed by slick, Red Dirt country filled with fiddles and pedal steel." - Texas Music

"Inspired by Mark Chesnutt, John, Michael Montgomery and Garth Brooks. You can hear it in his rich, supple voice." - Houston Chronicle

"He became a singer-songwriter who explores the commonalities and concerns of small-town America." -Cowboys & Indians

"A leading entertainer across the Lone Star State." - Markos Papadatos, Digital Journal
